A MUST FOR ALL QBs!!!

7-Step Off-Season Quarterback Training Program

This 7-step training plan will give any aspiring quarterback the edge needed to stand out above the competition. The major focus of this plan is to provide a quarterback with a practice routine that stresses basic footwork and throwing fundamentals. This systematic plan consists of agility ladder drills, warm-up throwing drills, fundamental movements specific to the quarterback position, 1-, 3-, and 5-step footwork mechanics, throwing on the run as well as throwing off balance. The drills and movements that are learned in these sessions are the movements that all quarterbacks make in an actual game. This off-season plan will help any quarterback play with confidence, poise and the necessary skills to ultimately succeed.

TERRY L. COPACIA

Director, All-State Quarterback School

Terry Copacia, a former high school and collegiate quarterback, has been coaching quarterbacks for 31 years. During 26 of those years, he has served as the Offensive Coordinator for Utica Eisenhower High School (MI). During this time, Eisenhower has won 216 games. Coach Copacia is also the former Head Coach of Utica Ford High School (MI 95-97).

Terry Copacia has been instrumental in developing a long list of successful high school quarterbacks. He has helped to develop one of the most successful passing attacks in the State of Michigan. Coach Copacia's quarterbacks have combined to throw for over 47,000 yards and 394 touchdowns during the past 24 seasons. During this time period, he has coached 17 All-County quarterbacks.

Since 1988, Coach Copacia has had the unique distinction of coaching seven quarterbacks who earned 1st Team All-State honors, and taking his team to the state playoffs 17 times, including 10 consecutive appearances, 6 semifinal appearances and 5 State Championship appearances.

Fourteen of Coach Copacia's quarterbacks have competed at the collegiate level since 1988, and two have played in the NFL.
